MGC Announces Hinckley As General Counsel

Jefferson City, Missouri - The Missouri Gaming Commission welcomes Christopher W. Hinckley as General Counsel. Hinckley is a former Prosecuting Attorney with the Circuit Attorney's office in the city of St.Louis.

MGC Executive Director Gene McNary says "Christopher Hinckley's experience as a trial lawyer will benefit the Commission greatly, as well as his knowledge of St.Louis, during a time in which two new casinos are being built in the St.Louis area."

Originally from New York City, New York, Christopher Hinckley served in the U.S. Navy as a Naval Officer, and is a graduate of Union College in Schenectady, New York with a Bachelor of Arts degree in History, and a Master's Degree in Arts in Teaching. Hinckley moved to St.Louis, Missouri to teach and coach at Mary Institute and St.Louis Country Day School. Hinckley then graduated from St.Louis University School of Law and began his tenure with the city.
